To,
The Mysore Superintendent and Ex-officio Secretary to the Government of Mysore

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith for information and such action as you may deem proper, an extract from the Diary of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Kadur District, for the week ending 19 October 1895, stating that he found one of the 2 doors of Ranganathaswamy's temple at Lacrepatna very insecure and ant-eaten, and that the temple property is secured in an iron safe which not having been braced, can be removed bodily without any difficulty and suggesting that the iron safe may be removed to the Kadur Taluk Treasury for safe custody, until the door of the temple is made secure.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

Inspector General of Police

Extract from the Diary of the Assistant Superintendent of Police, Kadiri District, for the week ending 19th October 1895

While at Tarepatna I visited the Ranganathaswamy's temple on a complaint made by one of the trustees that the Police do not watch the temple over night. I found on inspection one of the 2 doors very insecure and as the eaten Property to the amount of Rs 8000/- is said to be secured in the temple in an iron safe, which, as it is not buried, can be removed bodily without any difficulty. Till this door is made safe, I would suggest its removal to the Kadiri Taluk Treasury room for safe custody. The Inspector has been instructed to arrange for night visits to the temple by patrolling Police and the District Muzzoi officer will be addressed also
